

The Rock Springs National Bank was designated a depository for County Monies.

It was regularly moved, seconded and carried that no construction nor maintainance work be done by the County on any roads other than County roads.

The budget of the County Welfare Department was read and approved.

Attorneys Muir and Stanton requested that the Board reconsider the application of George Hartley for a Liquor License at Boulder. The Board refused to issue the license.

The following bills were audited and Cash Warrants ordered drawn:
