Sealed bids for the annual County audit were opened and read. Bids were received from Mariano & Brough, John Mortenson, and Heyborne, Radakovich & Costantino. It was moved by Commissioner Skinner and seconded by Commissioner Bousman to award the bid in the amount of $8,500 to Mariano & Brough. The motion carried.

Mike McGinnis, Road & Bridge Foreman, reported that gravel for the Horse Creek Road could be purchased from Bill Koch at $.50 per yard and directed to purchase the gravel. McGinnis reported that Reed's Ready Mix would trade chip rock for larger gravel, load for load, and directed to perform the trade. Possible fabric material was discussed for use on the Horse Creek Road, but no prices were available at this time.

Lee Wollrab, representing the Wyoming Game and Fish, and Dave Harper, representing the BLM, discussed the concerns for the antelope habitat at the Big Piney Landfill site and the possible expansion of the site for use by Teton County. Wollrab informed the Board that 400-600 antelope use that area for winter range and discussed the economic impact of the herd. The Board expressed their concern about developing additional sites since they have eliminated the Boulder and Daniel sites and the overall impact on wildlife in Sublette and Teton Counties. Wollrab indicated that the Game and Fish would be unable to support the proposed expansion at the Big Piney site.

Amy Reed, representing SWARA, presented her budget request and was informed that the County intends to continue to provide SWARA office space, but indicated that no funding will be available for social services unless unanticipated revenue is received.

Vern Gildea and Gene and Stella Taylor discussed with the Board the condition of the Horse Creek Road and were informed that the Board and Mike McGinnis were collecting information and prices on materials to repair the road.

Friday, July 3 was designated as an official County holiday.
