W. T. McGee, each of lawful age, being first duly sworn, each for himself, and not one for the other, upon his oath doth depose and say: That at the instance and request and for the use and benefit of Elizabeth Chapel, Dan M. Jenkins, W. C. McIlvain, R. R. Bidwell, Ethel L. Smith, Anna C. Cale, Maple M. Bidwell, and Geo. F. Farrell, original locators of the Bidwell Oil Placer Mining Claim, the same being the  $W\frac{1}{2}$  SW<sub>1/4</sub> and  $W\frac{1}{2}$  NW<sub>1/4</sub> of Section 31 township 29 north, range 112 west, of the Sixth Principal Meridian, in Lincoln County, Wyoming, they did on the 24 day of December, 1918 complete a well on said oil placer mining claim, and did discover oil colors in said well; on said mining claim and in sufficient quantities to justify a man of ordinary prudence in the expenditure of further time and money in the reasonable expectation of ultimately finding oil on said mining claim in large and commercial quantities.

W. T. McGee, each of lawful age, being first duly sworn, each for himself, and not for the other, upon his oath doth depose and say: That at the instance and request and for the use and benefit of W. W. Davis, J. H. Craig, J. F. Neve, R. A. Bauer, W. T. McGee, Frank Burke, H. A. Rand, John Schneider, the original locators of Walla Walla #19 Oil and Gas Placer Mining Claim, the same being the Northwest quarter of Section 12 township 28 north, range 112 west, of the Sixth Principal Meridian, in Lincoln County, State of Wyoming, they did on the 2nd day of Jan. A. D. 1919 complete a well on said placer mining claim, bored into the ground and did discover showings of oil colors in said well; that oil colors were discovered in said well within the surveyed boundaries of said oil claim and in sufficient quantities to justify a man of ordinary prudence in the expenditure of further time and money in the reasonable expectation of ultimately finding oil and gas, or either, on said oil claim in large and commercial quantities.
