Articles of Incorporation of North Piney Canal Company

Know All Men Hereby, That the undersigned J. E. Maxwell, William Chalfant, Junior, and Fred T. McDonald desiring to form a company under the laws of the State of Wyoming, relating to private corporation for the purpose of carrying on business as hereinafter more particularly stated, do make, sign and acknowledge in triplicate this and two other like certificates, and do state and declare as follows: First: The corporate name of said company is the North Piney Canal Company. Second: The term of existence of said company shall be fifty (50) years from the date of filing this certificate of incorporation in the office of the Secretary of The State of Wyoming. Third: Said corporation is organized for the main purpose of aiding the industrial or productive interests of the country, and in the furtherance of such main purpose said corporation is organized for the express purpose of acquiring title to certain water appropriations and a certain irrigation system known as the North Piney Canal System with the intent to hold, operate, use and dispose of the said water appropriations, irrigation systems, works and any and all rights, franchises, property and privileges, incidental, accompanying, connected with or appurtenant thereto, for the uses and benefit of any and all purchasers, holders and owners of the shares of said corporation.

And in furtherance of its main purpose the said corporation may engage in such business transactions as will promote the success of said main purpose, and may do any and all things, which in the judgment of its Board of Directors, are proper to be done in the name of said corporation and which are not expressly prohibited by the laws of Wyoming. Fourth: The principal office and place of business of the company, shall be located in Marbleton, Uinta County, Wyoming, but the said company may establish offices and transact business in such other towns, cities and Counties, in said State and outside of said state as the nature and progress of its business shall from time to
