THIS AGREEMENT made and entered into this 25th day of March, 1924, by and between E. L. De Camp, now of Shreveport, Louisiana, hereinafter called the "Owner," the party of the first part, and the Utah Oil Refining Company, a Utah corporation, hereinafter called the "Contractor," the party of the second part, WITNESSETH:

THAT WHEREAS, on or about the 23rd day of May, 1922, pursuant to an application therefor, under Section 13 of the Act of February 25, 1920 (41Stat. 437), there was issued but not delivered to the Owner a permit, Serial No. 07479, granting to him the exclusive right, for a period of two years from the date thereof, to prospect for oil and gas the following described lands located in the so-called La Barge District, Wyoming, to-wit:

All of Section 21, N $\frac{1}{2}$ N $\frac{1}{2}$, SE $\frac{1}{4}$ NE $\frac{1}{4}$, E $\frac{1}{2}$ SE $\frac{1}{4}$ of Section 28; and the NE $\frac{1}{4}$ NE $\frac{1}{4}$ of Section 33, all in Township 27 North, Range 113 West, 6th P. M. and,

WHEREAS, the Owner represents that the failure to deliver said permit to him resulted from the failure of the Local or General Land Office to comply with written request of Owner that any permit or notice relative to his application therefor be forwarded to him at address other than the one which he gave at the time of filing his application for said permit; and,

WHEREAS, because of the failure of the Owner to receive said permit or any notice of the issuance of same, and because of the Owner's ignorance of the issuance of the same, the work required by the terms thereof was not performed within the time required therefor, and as a result of such failure to perform said work a protest has been filed in the General Land Office seeking to have said permit cancelled; and,

WHEREAS, the Owner has pending an application for an extension of time within which to commence drilling operations upon said lands; and,

WHEREAS, the parties hereto believe the lands described in said permit contain valuable deposits of oil and gas; and,

WHEREAS, the owner desires to contract for the exploitation, development and operation of said lands, and production of the oil and gas therein, in full compliance with said Act of Congress and the regulations thereunder; and,

WHEREAS, the Contractor is able efficiently and economically to prospect for oil and gas on said premises, and to exploit, develop, produce and handle any oil or gas that may be found in commercial quantities therein, and to furnish the necessary working capital for the purposes aforesaid, and is desirous of obtaining the exclusive right to enter upon the lands described in said application and to prospect thereon and to develop, produce, market and handle any oil or gas found therein;

NOW, THEREFORE, in consideration of the premises, and the sum of one dollar by the Contractor to the Owner in hand paid, the receipt whereof is hereby confessed and acknowledged, and in further consideration of the covenants, promises and conditions hereinafter set forth, it is agreed;

ARTICLE I

Section 1. That the Contractor shall have and is hereby given exclusive right of possession and occupation of all lands under said permit and all leases or extensions, amendments or renewals of said permit or leases that may hereafter be granted by the United States to said owner, for the purpose of prospecting or drilling for, developing, producing and marketing all oil and/or gas therefrom; subject, however, to the right of the Owner to enter upon said premises at any and all reasonable times for the purpose of inspecting the same and the operations of the Contractor thereon.
