AGREEMENT, made this sixth day of March, 1926, between Walter E. Ebert of Kemmerer, Lincoln County, Wyoming, hereinafter called the "Contractor", of the one part, and Fontaine Producing Company, a corporation of New York City, New York, hereinafter called the "owner" of the other part, WITNESSETH:

THAT WHEREAS, Fontaine Producing Company is the owner of Oil and Gas Prospecting Permit, Serial No. (Evanston) 07623, granting to it the right to prospect for oil and gas the following described lands in Sublette County, Wyoming, to-wit:

South half (S $\frac{1}{2}$) of Section twenty (20), the East half (E $\frac{1}{2}$) of Section thirty (30), and all of Section twenty-nine (29), and the South-half (S $\frac{1}{2}$) and the North-east quarter (NE $\frac{1}{4}$) of Section thirty-three (33), all in Township twenty-eight (28) North, Range 113 West of the Sixth Principal Meridian.

WHEREAS, the owner desires to contract for the exploitation, development and drilling of said lands in full compliance with the Act of Congress and the regulations thereunder. (Act of February 25, 1920 (41 Stat. 437)).

NOW, THEREFORE, in consideration of the premises, and the sum of one dollar cash by the owner to the contractor in hand paid, the receipt whereof is hereby conveased and acknowledged, and in further consideration of the mutual promises, covenants and conditions hereinafter set forth, it is agreed:

1. The said Contractor hereby covenants, promises and agrees with and to the said owner that he will on or before the 10th day of March, 1926, place and erect upon some point or place in the Northwest quarter (NW $\frac{1}{4}$) of Section 29, township 28 North, Range 113 West, to be selected and spotted by H. E. Robinson as the agent for said Owner, an adequate, suitable and sufficient oil well drilling rig, equipment and machinery, and as soon said rig, with the use of diligence, is so erected and ready to operate said Contractor shall immediately commence drilling operation, and thereafter shall prosecute such drilling operations with reasonable diligence until a depth of ONE THOUSAND (1000) FEET has been obtained, unless oil and/or gas in commercial quantities shall be sooner encountered.

Said Contractor shall furnish all manner of drilling outfit, including rig, tools, boiler, casing and necessary equipment to complete said drilling, together with all labor and all supplies incident and necessary thereto, at his own proper cost and expense EXCEPTING, however, such items and things hereinafter specially agreed to be furnished and supplied by the owner.

Contractor agrees to drill a hole sufficient at all times to take 8 $\frac{1}{2}$ " standard pipe at a depth of one thousand feet; and to provide a hole of such size at said depth of 1000 feet he shall spud in a hole of sufficient diameter and continue said hole at sufficient diameter throughout to comply with the requirement aforesaid to take an 8 $\frac{1}{2}$ " standard pipe at a depth of 1000 feet.

Contractor agrees to drill said hole in a good and workmanlike manner and in accordance with established custom and in accordance with the Act of Congress of February 25, 1920 (41 Stat. 437) and all rules and regulations of the Department of the Interior, the terms of any and all permits issued by the said Department of the Interior, together with any extensions of said permit. And at all times during said operations and drilling to comply with all respects with the laws, rules and regulations of the Department of the Interior, relating to oil wells and the drilling and operation for oil including the keeping of a log of said well. Contractor shall also comply with all the requirements of the laws of the state of Wyoming relating to the Workmen's Compensation Act.
