

property of said estate hereinafter described be set over to Marie Meyer, as surviving widow of said deceased, as her absolute property by reason of such property being exempt from execution under the exemption and homestead laws of the state.

And it appearing that this is one of those cases that comes under the provisions of 88-917, Wyoming Revised Statutes, 1931, and that all notices should be dispensed with; that said administrator on the 27th day of January, 1947, duly made and returned to this court and filed in said estate an Inventory and Appraisement of all the property in said estate and that the appraised value thereof is $499.00; that the funeral expenses of said deceased, including the expenses of administration and last sickness, have been paid; that the said Marie Meyer is the widow of said deceased, resident of Sublette County, State of Wyoming, and that the personal property hereinafter described was and is the homestead of said deceased and said widow and that the same was and is exempt from execution.

And it further appearing to the court that all taxes, no inheritance tax being due, have been paid, and evidence being by this court heard, understood and considered, it is:

ORDERED, ADJUDGED AND DECREED That the Inventory and Appraisement be confirmed, and that all the right, title and interest and estate of said deceased, and all the right, title and interest that the estate has acquired by operation of Law or otherwise, in and to the following described personal property, situate in the County of Sublette, State of Wyoming, being more particularly described as follows, to-wit:
