

their claims or file same with the Clerk of said Court within six (6) months from the 12th day of May, 1949, the date of the first publication of said notice, and which said notice was published for three (3) successive weeks in said Big Piney Examiner, and the time stated therein and limited by law for creditors to present and file their claims has now expired, and all claims that have been presented or filed herein have been paid or otherwise disposed of and settled; that all costs, charges and expenses of administration of said estate, and all taxes levied and assessed against said estate, including inheritance taxes, have been paid; that on the 12th day of September, 1949, said administrator returned to this Court and filed with the Clerk thereof, an inventory and appraisal of the estate of said decedent which had come to his knowledge or possession and that said estate has been fully administered and in condition to be closed and the residue of said estate distributed to the person entitled thereto; that the whole of said estate is separate property.

That said decedent, Charles P. Budd, died intestate in said Sublette County, on the 18th day of April, 1949, leaving him surviving as his only heirs, DOROTHY B. NEWCOMB, and JENNIE B. JORDAN, adult daughters, and DAN H. BUDD, adult son, his only descendants, and who, as such heirs, are each entitled to one-third of the residue of the estate of said decedent.

It is therefor, by the Court, ORDERED, ADJUDGED and DECREED, that the final account and report of said administrator, and his acts and doings in the administration of said estate are allowed, approved, settled and confirmed, and the residue of the estate of said decedent, and any other property not now known or discovered which may belong to said estate, or in which said estate may have any interest, be, and the same is hereby distributed
