Decree of Settlement of Account
and Final Distribution.

Caterina Carollo, executrix of the Estate of Joseph J. Carollo, deceased, having on the seventh day of June, 1917, rendered and filed herein a full account and report of her administration of said estate, which account was for a final settlement, and having with said account filed a petition for the final distribution of the estate;

And said account and petition this day coming on regularly to be heard, proof having been made to the satisfaction of the Court that the executrix had given notice of the settlement of said account, and the hearing of said petition in the manner and for the time heretofore ordered and directed by the Court and in the manner and for the time provided by law;

And it appearing that said account is in all respects true and correct, and that it is supported by proper vouchers; that the residue of money in the hands of the executrix at the time of filing said account was $21,968.79, that since the rendition of said account there has been received by said executrix the sum of $550.00, that the sum of $953.96 has been expended by her as necessary expenses of administration, the vouchers whereof, together with a statement of such expenses and disbursements, are now presented and filed, and said statement is now settled and allowed, and the payments are approved by this Court; that the estimated expenses of closing the estate will amount to $515.00, leaving a residue of $21,049.83;

And it appearing that all claims and debts against said decedent, all taxes on said estate, and all debts, expenses and charges of administration, have been fully paid and discharged, and that said estate is ready for distribution and in condition to be closed;

It is further ordered, adjudged and decreed, that the said final account of said executrix be and the same is settled, allowed and approved.

Now, on this, the 24th day of July, 1917, on motion of H. R. Christmas, attorney for said executrix:

It is hereby ordered, adjudged, and decreed, and this does order, adjudge, and decree, that the residue of said estate of Joseph J. Carollo, deceased, hereinafter particularly described, and now remaining in the hands of said executrix, and any other property not now known or discovered, which may belong to the said estate, or in which the said estate may have any interest, be and the same is hereby distributed in accordance with the terms and provisions of the last Will and Testament of said deceased, that is to say:

The whole of said residue to the said Caterina Carollo, including the whole of the personal property and the whole of the real
