

438

The Court Finds that C. C. Alexander (who was also known as Charles C. Alexander) by Warranty Deed dated January 31, 1942, conveyed to his wife, Grace Alexander, all his right, title and interest in the above described lands; that subsequently, on November 27, 1943, said Grace Alexander died at Evanston, Wyoming, and that by her Last Will and Testament duly admitted to probate in the District Court within and for Sublette County, Wyoming, on March 21, 1944, all her right, title and interest in said lands were devised to Lawrence William Alexander and Charles Herbert Alexander in equal shares.

IT IS, THEREFORE, ORDERED AND DECREED:

That the account filed herein by the Executor be and the same hereby is settled, allowed and approved;

That the legacy to Frank Alexander has lapsed;

That all the remaining legacies mentioned above and in said Last Will and Testament have been paid and settled except the one to Essex Eugene Alexander;

That the Executor be and he hereby is directed to pay the legacy to Essex Eugene Alexander in the sum of $100.00;

That the following described real estate, to-wit:

West Half of the Southeast Quarter of Section 5; and Southwest Quarter of the Southwest Quarter of Section 9; all in Township 35 North, Range 110 West of the Sixth Principal Meridian; and

West Half of the West Half of Section 28; and North Half of the Northeast Quarter, and Southwest Quarter of the Northeast Quarter, and East Half of the Northwest Quarter of Section 29, Township 36 North, Range 110 West of the Sixth Principal Meridian, with all improvements thereon and all water and water rights and ditches and ditch rights and appurtenances belonging thereto, be and they hereby are distributed as follows:

To Lawrence William Alexander, an undivided one-fourth interest;
To Charles Herbert Alexander, an undivided one-fourth interest;
To W. J. Alexander, an undivided one-half interest.