ORDER SETTLING ADMINISTRATRIX' ACCOUNT AND DECREE OF DISTRIBUTION

Baby L. Tamblyn, as Administratrix of the above estate, having on the 5th day of September, 1957 filed herein a full account and report of her administration of said estate, which account was for final settlement, and having therewith filed her petition for distribution of said decedent's estate, and said account and petition this day coming on regularly to be heard, and the Court having heard and examined the evidence and proofs offered in support thereof, does find:

That notice to all creditors and others interested in the above estate was published for four consecutive weeks in the Pinedale Roundup, a newspaper published and of general circulation in the County of Sublette and State of Wyoming, the first publication thereof appearing therein on the 22nd day of August, 1957, and advising that said administrator would file her final account and petition for distribution of said estate in the office of the Clerk of the above Court on or before the 16th day of September, 1957, and that she would make final settlement of the above estate on the 27th day of September, 1957 or as soon thereafter as the matter could be heard, unless objections to the account and petition were filed on or before the 26th day of September, 1957;

That copies of the notice of the final settlement of said estate were addressed to the heirs of the deceased at their places of residence, and deposited in the United States Post Office at Pinedale, Wyoming, with the postage thereon prepaid as required by law;

That no objections to said account and petition or the allowance and settlement thereof, have been filed herein by any heir or creditor of the decedent or his estate, or by another interest/person;

That said decedent owned no money at his death which has come to the attention of the administratrix and that all creditors' claims filed herein have been paid in full by the administratrix out of her own personal funds;

That the only property belonging to the decedent, or in which he owned an interest
