DECREE SETTING OVER HOMESTEAD TO
SURVIVING HUSBAND AS HIS ABSOLUTE PROPERTY

Robert D. Murphy, the surviving husband of said decedent, having on this 5 day of August, 1960, made application to this court, by petition for an order and decree of this court setting over and apart for his use and to him as his homestead and his absolute property in fee, certain real property which is hereinafter more particularly described.

And it appearing to the Court that an Order to Show Cause was made and entered herein on the 5 day of July, 1960, upon said petition, which order to show cause was published in the Rock Springs Rocket, a weekly newspaper of general circulation published in said county and state, for a period of three successive weeks, and as required by law; and that proof of said publication has been filed herein.

And it appearing to the Court that the property described in said petition is exempt under the exemption laws of the State of Wyoming.

And it further appearing that there have been no objections filed herein, and all the singular the law and evidence being by the Court heard, understood and considered, and the Court being now sufficiently advised in the premises, doth say and find that all the allegations contained in the petition filed herein are true.

And the Court further finds that the premises described in the petition does not exceed the sum of Three Thousand Five Hundred and No/100 ($3,500.00) Dollars, in value; and that said surviving husband is entitled to have said real property set over and apart to him as his absolute property in fee, under the provisions of the statute in such case made and provided.

And the Court further finds that said real property and premises, as is more particularly shown by the inventory and appraisement filed herein, was appraised at the sum of Three Thousand Five Hundred and No/100 ($3,500.00) Dollars.

WHEREFORE, IT IS CONSIDERED, ORDERED, ADJUDGED AND DECREED that the inventory and appraisement herein filed be confirmed, and that all of the interest of Elizabeth H. Murphy, also known as Mrs. E. H. Murphy, in and to that certain lot, piece, and parcel of land described in said petition as situate in the County of Sublette, State of Wyoming, and particularly described as follows, to-wit:
