

be taken and deemed to be transferred to and vested in the consolidated corporation; and all such rights, privileges, powers and franchises, interests, property, debts, claims, demands and things in action, and all and every other interest shall be thereafter as effectually the property of the consolidated corporation as they were of the several and respective Constituent Corporations, and the title to any real estate, or interest therein, whether vested by deed or otherwise in either of the Constituent Corporations, shall not revert or be in any way impaired by reason of the merger; provided, however, that rights of creditors and liens upon any property of any of the Constituent Corporations shall not in any manner be impaired, nor shall any liability or obligation due or to become due, or any claim or demand for any cause existing against either such corporation or against any stockholder thereof, be released or impaired by the merger, and all debts, liabilities, obligations and duties of said Corporations, respectively, shall thenceforth attach to the consolidated corporation and may be enforced against it to the same extent as if said debts, liabilities, obligations or duties had been incurred, contracted or assumed by the consolidated corporation."

That the records of this office reflect that all fees have been paid with respect to the filing of said Certificate of Consolidation and Allied Chemical Corporation, a New York corporation, as the surviving corporation, is duly authorized to transact business in this state.

IN TESTIMONY WHEREOF, I have hereunto signed my name officially and caused to be impressed hereon the Seal of State, this 26th day of March, 1962.
