

of the resignation of a Trustee or after giving notice of intended removal of a Trustee. In such event, the Trustee shall execute all documents and do all acts necessary to vest title to the trust estate in its successor without any court accounting; and no successor Trustee shall be obligated to examine the accounts, records and acts of any previous Trustee or any allocation of the trust income made by any previous Trustee. However, the Trustee shall make an accounting to all of the beneficiaries of the net income of the trust at the date that it ceases to act as Trustee and shall allow such beneficiaries or the successor Trustee or their agents to examine the accounts and documents relevant to the accounts of the trust prior to release from its obligations as Trustee.

¶12.04. The Trustee or its successors shall not give bond unless required by law or court rule, in which event no surety shall be required.

¶12.05. Appointment of the Trustee herein shall be deemed to constitute and include the appointment of any corporate successor to the Trustee.

¶12.06. The Trust shall always be administered free from the active supervision of any court, but in the event that the Trustee shall determine to seek court instructions or determinations at any time, the same shall be sought from the state court of original unlimited jurisdiction having territorial jurisdiction over the geographical area in which the County of Sublette,
