DECISION

Applicant: Wyoming Highway Department : Right-of-Way for Highway
Map Filed: September 12, 1955 : Wyoming 036820

RIGHT-OF-WAY APPROVED

The application and map filed by the Wyoming Highway Department under Sec. 17 of the Act of November 9, 1921 (41 Stat. 216) for a right-of-way for a highway across the following lands, has been examined and found to conform to the law and regulations: Secs. 5, 6, 8, 9, 17, 21, 28, 33, T. 30 N., R. 107 W.; Sec. 31, T. 31 N., R. 107 W.; Secs. 3, 10, 11, 14, 23, 24, 25, T. 31 N., R. 108 W., 6th P. M., Wyoming.

Accordingly, pursuant to the above mentioned act and the regulations thereunder (43 CFR Sec. 244.54) and to all future regulations issued thereunder pertinent to highway rights-of-way, permission is hereby granted the Wyoming Highway Department to use as a highway the above described land shown on the map filed in the Land Office, Cheyenne, Wyoming on September 12, 1955, subject to valid existing rights and compliance with the terms and conditions of section 244.9 of the regulations approved June 24, 1952, as amended and revised; and further subject to the following special requirements as set forth by the District Manager, Bureau of Land Management, Pinedale, Wyoming:

1. Any changes in existing fences and/or cattle guards will be made at the expense of the applicant.
2. Any damages resulting from road construction to existing stock water or erosion control dams will be made good (in the form of repairs) by the applicant.
