

make any such payment, whether of income or principal, to²⁰⁶ the guardian of such person, or to the parent of such person, or to the person with whom such person resides, or directly to such person, or otherwise, as the trustees shall determine to be for the best interests of such person.

B. Unless sooner terminated pursuant to some other provision hereof, each such trust for a descendant of mine shall terminate separately when such descendant for whom such trust is held shall die, and upon such termination the entire trust estate of such trust, including any undistributed income, then held by the trustees shall vest in and be distributed to such person or persons among the following, viz.: surviving spouse of such descendant, issue of such descendant, brothers and/or sisters of such descendant and issue of any deceased brother or sister of such descendant, and/or charitable objects, and in such proportions and in such manner as such descendant shall by last will and testament duly admitted to probate designate and appoint to take the same, or if such descendant shall fail to validly exercise said limited power of appointment as to all or any portion of the trust estate of such trust, then such portion of such trust estate as to which such limited power of appointment shall not be validly exercised shall, subject to the provisions of this paragraph TENTH, vest in and be distributed, per stirpes, to the then living issue of such descendant for whom such trust was held, or if there shall be no then living issue of such descendant then in and to the other descendants of mine then living.
