DECREE

This matter came on for hearing this day before the Court upon the complaint and answer; John S. Mackey appeared for the Plaintiffs and Edgar J. Herschler appeared for Defendants;

The Court has examined the pleadings and the proofs offered in support thereof, together with the files and records of the Court, and has heard the testimony and is now fully advised, from which the Court does find and conclude:

That actual service of summons and complaint has not been made upon the person of the Defendants, nor upon the person of any one of the Defendants herein; but that notice of the within action has been given by publication in the Pinedale Roundup, a newspaper published within Sublette County, Wyoming, as a substitute for personal service of notice, summons and process upon each of the Defendants; that prior to publication John S. Mackey filed herein his affidavit stating that service of summons upon the Defendants, and each of them, within the State of Wyoming, could not be made, and, further, that the address of each of said Defendants was unknown and could not
