

428

evidence offered, and being advised, the Court has reached the following conclusions:

That Plaintiff has offered to Defendant intolerable indignities and Defendant should have a divorce; further, Defendant is able and willing to care for Kathleen Beck, the minor child of the parties, who was born April 5, 1963, and the care of said minor child should be awarded to the Defendant and Plaintiff should be allowed to visit said minor child at all reasonable times; further, Plaintiff is able and willing and should pay Fifty and No/100 ($50.00) Dollars per month for the support and maintenance of the said minor child;

That Defendant has been required to retain the services of David N. Burns, Attorney at Law, of Jackson, Wyoming, to represent her herein, and Seven Hundred Fifty and No/100 ($750.00) Dollars is a reasonable fee for the services so rendered which said sum Defendant should recover of the Plaintiff;

That the parties hereto are indebted to Charles Ainsworth and Sylvia Ainsworth in the principal sum of Eleven Thousand Three Hundred Twenty Nine and 50/100 ($11,329.50) Dollars and the interest accruing thereon, in accordance with the promissory notes hereafter identified:

- (1) One promissory note in the amount of Two Thousand Two Hundred Eighty Eight and 50/100 ($2,288.50) Dollars, dated January 5, 1962, due on demand, with interest at six per cent (6%), payee Charles Ainsworth; payor Grant Beck and Eleanor Ainsworth Beck.
- (2) One promissory note in the amount of One Thousand