Clerk of Court
Sublette County, Wyoming

This matter came on for hearing this day before the Court upon the Complaint and Answer; John S. Mackey, Attorney at Law, of Pinedale, Wyoming, appeared for the Plaintiffs and Robert W. Sievers, Attorney at Law, of Pinedale, Wyoming, appeared for the Defendants;

The Court has examined the pleadings and the proofs offered in support thereof, together with the files and records of the Court, and has heard the testimony offered, and is now fully advised, from which the Court does find and concludes:

That actual service of summons and complaint has not been made upon the person of the defendants, nor upon the person of any one of the defendants herein; but that notice of the within action has been given by publication in the Pine-dale Roundup, a newspaper published within Sublette County, Wyoming, as a substitute for personal service of notice, summons and process upon each of the defendants; that prior to
