

517
551

successive weekly issues of said paper commencing with its issue of August 18, 1966, and the time stated therein and limited by statute for presenting and filing claims has expired and all claims that have been presented and filed herein have been paid or otherwise disposed of; that all costs, charges and expenses of administration of said estate, including executrix's commission and attorney's fees, and all taxes levied and assessed against said estate have been paid and discharged; that the inheritance tax due from said estate has been paid; that said executrix duly returned and filed with the Clerk of Court a true inventory and appraisement of the estate of said decedent, and that said estate has been fully administered and in condition to be closed and the residue thereof distributed to the person or persons entitled thereto by the terms of the will of said decedent; and the Court, having fully considered the matter and proceedings herein had and the evidence adduced, finds:

That the final account of the executrix to be true and correct.

That by the terms of the last will and testament of Sidney Orville Reynolds, deceased, duly admitted to probate herein, he devised and bequeathed all of his estate to his wife, Amelie Zell Reynolds.

And all and singular the law and the evidence being by the Court, seen, heard and understood, and being fully advised in the premises, it is, by the Court:

CONSIDERED, ORDERED, ADJUDGED AND DECREED, that the final account, report and doings of said executrix in her administration of said estate be, and the same are hereby settled, allowed and approved.

IT IS FURTHER ORDERED, ADJUDGED AND DECREED, that the whole of the residue of the estate of the decedent, Sidney Orville Reynolds, and any other property or estate not now known or discovered which may belong to said estate, or in which said estate may have any interest be, and the same is hereby set over