Hereby releasing and waiving all rights under and by virtue of the homestead laws of this State.

If the road is located substantially as described herein, the centerline of the road as constructed is hereby deemed accepted by the Grantor as the true centerline of the easement granted.

The acquiring agency is the Forest Service, Department of Agriculture.

This conveyance is made subject to the following reservations by the Grantor, his heirs, and assigns:

1. The right to cross and recross the easement at any point and for any purpose in such manner as will not materially interfere with the use of the road.
2. The right to all timber now growing or which may hereafter grow within the easement and the right to use any land therein not devoted to road use for grazing and the growing of crops; provided, the United States and its assigns shall have the right to cut timber upon the easement to the extent necessary for construction, reconstruction, improvement, and maintenance of the road, which timber unless otherwise agreed, shall be cut into logs of standard lengths and decked along the easement for disposal by the Grantor.
