"FIRST: I hereby direct that all my just debts and funeral expenses be fully paid and satisfied as soon after my death as my executrix, hereinafter named, may find convenient.

SECOND: I do hereby give, devise and bequeath all of the residue and remainder of my property of which I shall die possessed, real, personal and mixed, of whatsoever kind and wheresoever situated, to my children, John B. Erramouspe, Mary Jeanne Erramouspe, Ann Marie Erramouspe, Catherine Erramouspe, Joseph J. Erramouspe, Bernadette Erramouspe, Paul S. Erramouspe, Marguerite Louise Erramouspe and Grace V. Erramouspe, equally, share and share alike."

And it further appearing that, under the terms and provisions of said last will and testament, said John B. Erramouspe, Ann Marie Case, Catherine Canestrini, Joseph J. Erramouspe, Bernadette Gosar, Paul S. Erramouspe, Marguerite Louise Sellyei, Grace V. Erramouspe and Mary Jeanne Erramouspe (Sister Miriam Grace), children of decedent, are each entitled to an undivided one-ninth interest in and to all of the residue and remainder of said estate. However, after Notice and Explanation of Right and Option to Accept Against the Will, dated July 6, 1970, given to her on that date by Honorable J. Reuel Armstrong, Judge of this Court, Grace Erramouspe, widow of decedent, by instrument entitled Exercise of Right, Option and Election to Take Against the Will, dated July 6, 1970, duly signed and acknowledged by her and filed in the above-entitled matter on said 6th day of July, 1970, exercised her right and option to refuse to accept the conditions of said last will and testament, but, instead, did claim and exercise the right, option and election to take and accept one-half of the estate, real and personal, of said decedent, as provided by Section 2-47, Wyoming Statutes, 1957, as amended; that, therefore, she is entitled to an undivided one-half interest in and to all of the residue and remainder of said estate; and that said John B. Erramouspe, Ann Marie Case, Catherine Canestrini, Joseph J. Erramouspe, Bernadette Gosar, Paul S. Erramouspe, Marguerite Louise Sellyei, Grace V. Erramouspe and Mary Jeanne Erramouspe (Sister Miriam Grace), children of decedent, are each entitled to an undivided one-eighteenth interest in and to all of the residue and remainder of said estate;

And it further appearing that the executrix has paid the sum of $7,496.36 as federal estate taxes due the United States of America and $1,003.48 inheritance taxes due the State of Wyoming; and that, pursuant to law, each of the following distributees is chargeable with that amount of said taxes which is set opposite his or her name:
