Should any person named as First Party die, any notice hereunder may be likewise served upon any administrator, executor, personal representative or heir of such deceased person, and when so served shall bind each and all of the administrators, executors, personal representatives and heirs of such deceased person, and the right, title, interest and estate of each and all of them in said oil and gas lease. All persons, firms and corporations designated as First Party, and each of them, agrees that any such notice so served on any one of them, or on an administrator, executor, personal representative or heir of any deceased person who is herein referred to as First Party, whether or not the said notice shall be actually received, shall be binding upon each and all of them, their heirs, representatives, administrators, successors and assigns, and upon their respective interests and estates in the lands and leases above described.

It is agreed that the addresses of the parties hereto, as stated above, shall continue in effect until changed in writing by the respective parties.

FIRST: For the consideration recited, as aforesaid, First Party, insofar as same can be done, hereby authorizes Second Party, its successors and assigns, as the agent of First Party, to enter said lands and conduct geological exploration by the use of seismograph or geophysical or geological methods, and for the same consideration, First Party hereby grants to Second Party the exclusive option and privilege to be exercised in whole or in part at any time within the option period hereinafter stated, of purchasing and acquiring said oil and gas lease (including any extensions thereof, extension leases, renewals thereof, renewal leases, preferentially-new, substitute or other leases hereafter issued, pursuant to or by reason thereof) as to all or any part of the lands embraced therein. It is understood that after said oil and gas lease has been issued, the record title holder thereof is, under applicable law and regulations, entitled to the issuance of a preferential-new, renewal, or extension oil and gas lease covering said lands upon making timely application therefor and upon complying with applicable law and regulations; therefore, in the event the primary term of said oil and gas lease will expire prior to the termination of said option period, First Party, for the same consideration mentioned above, agrees and binds himself (himself, themselves and itself) as record title holder of said lease, to make, at Second Party's request, timely, proper and sufficient application for the issuance, under such law and regulations, of a preferential-new, renewal, or extension oil and gas lease on the lands above described, and in so doing to comply with the applicable laws and regulations of the Department of the Interior governing the issuance of said preferential-new, renewal or extension oil and gas lease; and this option agreement in all its terms, shall apply to and bind such preferential-new, extension or renewal oil and gas lease upon the issuance thereof to the same extent and for the same purposes as though said preferential-new, extension or renewal oil and gas lease were in existence at the time of the execution and delivery of this agreement, and the term "lease" as used herein shall for all purposes apply to and include any and all extensions, extension leases, renewals thereof, renewal leases, preferential-new, substitute or other leases issued pursuant to any preference right now or hereafter authorized.
