This option, made this 4th day of August, A. D. 1956, by and between Robert L. Hull, and wife, Mary Jane Hull mailing address 3939 Parker Ct., Indianapolis, Indiana, hereinafter called lessee, party of the first part, and El Paso Natural Gas Company, mailing address P. O. Box 1492, El Paso, Texas, hereinafter called assignee, party of the second part, WITNESSETH:

Whereas, lessee ~~has~~ filed an application for an oil and gas lease under the Act of Congress, approved February 25, 1920 (41 Stat. 437), as amended, bearing Serial No. W-028420, said application bearing date
July 2, 1954, and covering the following described land in the County of Sublette and State of Wyoming:

Township 27 North, Range 105 West, 6th P.M.
Section 7: E/2
Section 9: All
Section 15: W/2
Section 18: E/2
Section 20: N/2
Township 27 North, Range 106 West, 6th P.M.
Section 12: All
Containing 2,560.00 acres, more or less.

Said lease was issued to the lessee as to the above described land under date of August 1, 1954

(Delete if lease not issued.)

For and in consideration of the sum of One Dollar ($1.00), and other valuable consideration, the receipt of which is hereby acknowledged, and which is acknowledged to be sufficient to support all the rights and privileges hereby granted, lessee hereby grants unto the assignee, or to assignee's qualified heirs, personal representatives, successors and assigns, the right and option to acquire by assignment all of the right, title and interest of the lessee, his heirs, personal representatives or assigns, in and to the above described lease, when and if issued and to any extension thereof, to the extent that it covers or may cover the above described land, or any part thereof, such assignment to be in manner, form and substance satisfactory and acceptable to assignee, and to be free and clear of any and all liens, encumbrances or outstanding interests except as hereinbelow set out:

(a) None

(b) An overriding royalty of One percent (1%) of all oil and gas produced, saved and marketed from the above described land, which royalty interest is to be reserved by lessee if and when assignee elects to take the assignment of the interest of lessee in said land as herein provided.

The optional right hereby granted is for the purpose of enabling the assignee to do and perform such geological or geophysical exploration as assignee may desire on and in the vicinity of said land at any time hereafter and until the termination of said option, including the right to drill core holes and perform seismograph or other work thereon. If the above described lease has issued, as above set out, then this option must be exercised by assignee within three years from and after the date hereof; but if the lease has not been issued and the application therefor is still pending before the Department of the Interior, said option period shall be for the term of three years from and after the date of actual issuance of the lease; provided, however, in either case, that if all or part of the land covered hereby is included in a cooperative or unit plan of development under said Act of Congress, as amended, duly executed by the parties hereto, and submitted to the Secretary of the Interior for final approval prior to the expiration of the option period, then as to such land so included, this option shall not expire, and the rights granted hereunder shall be extended until 30 days after final approval or disapproval of said plan by the Secretary.

In the event said lease has not been issued, lessee agrees to execute and file all documents and papers and to do all things necessary to secure the prompt issuance of said lease, and to promptly furnish assignee with all papers and notices and requirements received from the Department of the Interior.
