

gas, as herein provided, are excepted from the provisions of this contract.

(e) The right as between Buyer and Seller to retain and dispose of (free from any and all claims by Buyer) all right, title and claim to any and all liquid hydrocarbons, hydrogen sulfide, and other constituents recovered by or for Seller from the Gas prior to delivery.

(f) The right to operate the properties covered by this contract free from any and all control by Buyer hereunder, in such a manner as Seller in its sole discretion deems advisable, including without limitation the right to do or not to do any of the following:

- i. Drill new wells.
- ii. Repair or rework old wells.
- iii. Abandon any well.
- iv. Shut in oil wells and determine producing rates.
- v. Renew or extend wholly or in part any leases covered by this contract.
- vi. Surrender, release, or terminate any lease agreement.

3. Seller shall not be required to connect into the gathering system delivering gas hereunder any well which is unable to produce at least five hundred (500) Mcf of gas a