

511
ADDENDUM TO

Oil and Gas Lease, Dated June 8, 1972, By and Between The National Bank of Commerce of San Antonio, Texas, Trustee for the Mary E. Richardson Trust, as Lessor, and

Humble Oil & Refining Company, as Lessee.

* * * *

Without enlarging the obligations or diminishing the rights of Lessee, as provided in the foregoing lease, Lessee hereby agrees, for the duration of the Mary E.
Richardson Trust, to use its best efforts, from time to time as the need therefor may arise, to furnish Lessor certain limited services, in the form of written notifications, to be made following any of these events:

1. If Lessee pays any taxes on behalf of Lessor, as provided in the lease.
2. If, as provided in the lease, all or any part of Lessee's estate is assigned to another party or parties and, as to the assigned leasehold rights, Lessee desires to be relieved and discharged from any liability to Lessor accruing from the date of any such assignment.
3. If the method or means of keeping the lease in force changes, whether during or after the primary term.

Any such written notification shall be furnished in the normal course of Lessee's business, but within a reasonable time following the event requiring notification.
Failure to furnish any such notification, as above provided, shall not be a cause for cancellation of the foregoing lease. No part of this addendum shall be construed as a definition of any term or phrase used in the foregoing lease.

E.H.C.